10.JUDGING AND WINNER SELECTION. At the end of each Contest Submission Period, the Judges will review and rank each eligible Entry received, to determine the potential winners, using the following rating scale and criterion. Winners will be determined as specifically described in these Official Rules, and not using any random drawing or method incorporating chance:

Rating Scale	Rating Criterion
1 - 5 Possible Points	Quality, Creativity, Originality of the Idea
1 - 5 Possible Points	Potential for Strategic Impact in / on Product Category (as determined by Judges)
1 - 5 Possible Points	Overall Implementation of Idea including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">o how well the idea was executed,o extent to which Facebook products and their features were leveragedo extent to which respect for user privacy was considered or incorporated in the design

In the event of a tie in totaled points, it will be resolved between or among the tying Entries (and the winner determined) based on the Entry with the Judges' highest point score under the "Overall Implementation of Idea" Criterion. If there is still a tie, the tie will be similarly resolved in favor of the Entry with the higher score under the "Potential for Strategic Impact in / on Product Category" Criterion. Judges are not required to test the software submitted as part of any Entry and may evaluate Entries and determine winners based solely on the text description, images, and videos, submitted for Entry. Judges' decisions are final and binding in all matters relating to a Contest. Each Entrant acknowledges that Entries and their components independently created and/or submitted by other Entrants may contain or be based on similar ideas and concepts and that no Entrant will be entitled to any compensation or right to negotiate with the Administrator or Sponsor and its Affiliates because of these similarities.

11.WINNER NOTIFICATION. Potential winners will typically be notified on or about 3 days after close of the Contest Testing / Security Check phase, Administrator or Sponsor or its designee will attempt to notify eligible potential winners by contacting the Individual or designated Team or Organization Representative associated with the Entry.

Potential winners (including each Individual associated with the Entry) may be required to complete and return a signed and notarized (if applicable), Affidavit/Declaration of Eligibility and Liability/Publicity Release (unless prohibited by law), tax and/or related prize-acceptance or other required documents within 10 days (or other time frame specified) after attempted notification and in the form provided by Sponsor without revision in order to claim the prize or the prize may be forfeited and an alternate winner selected. If at any time any Individual cannot be reached, fails or refuses to timely return any prize claim documents as instructed or to comply with these Official Rules, or if any attempted Individual notification or other Contest-related communication by Sponsor or Administrator is returned as undeliverable, then the Entry associated with that Individual (including any Team or Organization Entry) may be disqualified in Sponsor's sole discretion with no liability or responsibility to that Individual, Team or Organization or associated Entry (even if other Team or Organization members have complied with Sponsor's requirements).

Subject to verification, all prizes legitimately claimed in accordance with the Official Rules will be awarded and Sponsor reserves the right to determine and award fewer than the stated number of winners and prizes if an insufficient volume of eligible Entries or failed or incomplete prize claims. Sponsor reserves the right to modify the notification procedures in connection with the selection of any alternate potential winner, if any, and will not be obligated to pursue alternate winners or more than 1 alternate winner.
