

Proximity cards

Tech specs

General

|               |                                                 |                       |                                                                            |
|---------------|-------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Model number  | ACC-PROX-1                                      | Base part number - PN | 2A-881001-A                                                                |
| Description   | Standard 26-bit prox format                     | Dimensions            | Height: 2.1in / 54mmWidth: 3.4in / 85.6mmDepth: 0.035in / 0.9mm    |
| Compatibility | Works with all Verkada readers                  | Weight                | 0.21oz / 6.0g                                                              |
| Chip type     | T5577                                           | Encryption            | AES 128 bit                                                                |
| Frequency     | 125KHz / bit rate above13.56 MHz / bit rate | Warranty              | 10 years                                                                   |
| Box quantity  | 100 cards                                       | Pricing               | US cost (MSRP) <sup>USD</sup> $599WW cost (MSRP) <sup>USD</sup> $599 |