

International Public Notice: The Problem of Sync

By Anna Von Reitz

Imagine an old-fashioned Swiss watch, the kind that has a million gears all meshed together, with interlocking teeth. The world we live in has a mechanism that is somewhat similar to that, which the Bible describes as the "Mazzaroth", and which we call the "Celestial sphere" or Zodiac.

Some Christians think that this natural phenomenon which is part of the Creation as a whole is "evil" because it has been used or blamed for evil purposes, but this is the same logic that blames a gun for murder, and not the man who wields it.

If you pay close attention to the words attributed to Jesus in the New Testament, you can easily see that he spoke in terms of the Mazzaroth: "my kingdom is not of this (celestial) age", and "in my Father's kingdom there many mansions" --- houses, celestial abodes.

Each one of these celestial houses (of the Zodiac) embodies different powers and energies that are beneficial to our lives and life on Earth. They are part of Creation and are here to be observed and understood.

They have to be understood at this point of our development, in order to grasp the craziness going on around us.

Our solar system as a whole makes a tour of the celestial realm that takes nearly 26,000 years (25,920 years to be exact) This is further divided into "precessional months" of 2,160 years -- the time period it takes our solar system to visit each "house" of the Zodiac.

This is what the ancient peoples of Earth are talking about when they talk about "ages", and what Jesus was talking about when he said, "my kingdom is not of this age". He was telling his disciples that his kingdom was not part of the then-current Age of Pisces, which was just beginning during his lifetime.

The celestial ages are also what we are talking about when we talk about the Age of Aquarius.

All ancient peoples we have encountered have understood this celestial time clock and looked forward to and prepared for the changes that take place every 2,160 years, when a "new age dawns" and our solar system undergoes profound but subtle changes.

The most recent Age of Taurus ran between 4,440 and 2,200 BC; it was an agricultural Age that saw vast expansion of farming and animal husbandry on Earth. The symbol of this Age was the cow and its religion involved cow worship. This is where we get the Egyptian goddess, Hathor. This is where we get the Hebrews worshipping the golden calf. This is where we get Mithras killing the "celestial bull". And yes, this is where we get the sacred cows of Hinduism to this day.

The Age of Taurus was succeeded by the Age of Aries, the Ram, running from 2,200 BC to the time of Christ; in fact, the Precessional Age of Aries was just ending and the Age of Pisces, the Fish, was just beginning when Jesus walked the Earth.

The Age of Aries was an Age marked by militarism and engineering feats that have not been surpassed; vast wars and migrations happened throughout the Age of Aries. Troy and Mycenaean Greece, the Grecian City-States, the Persian Wars and Thermopylae, the destruction of Carthage, and the rise of Rome and its Empire, all took place during the Age of Aries.

The Age of Aries was a time of military cults, like the Cult of Mithras, and secret brotherhoods, and Mystery religions. The Greek Oracles and Druidism flourished during the Age of Aries. The carnal gods of Mammon, Baphomet, and Baal had a resurgence of devotees, and pantheons of gods and goddesses were worshiped, from the old Norse gods in Scandinavia to Greco-Roman pantheons popular throughout the Mediterranean.

Next came the Age of Pisces, the Fish, the Age of Universal Deceit and Illusion, which began roughly with the year 1 in what we call the "Current Era" -- which is just ending. During this time, chaos and beauty have reigned. The Age of Pisces has been an Age characterized by nightmares of violence and depravity, interspersed with flowerings of art and culture and grand dreams.

Having muddled its way through the destruction of the Roman Empire and the Dark Ages, the Age of Pisces gave us the Renaissance, Shakespeare, the printing press, monarchies and representative democracies, scientific method, political parties, labor unions, modern circumnavigation of the globe, trade "wars", lawfare, a mish-mash of disparate religions and religious belief systems, and a world in which almost nothing is what it seems.

The Ages of Pisces has indeed been a time of delusion and deceit on a massive scale, as our Readers have discovered--- but now, the Ages of Pisces is ending, and the delusions and deceits are ending, too.

What lies ahead is the Age of Aquarius, the Water-Bearer, and a time when the miasma and filth of former ages will be scrubbed clean and both reason and compassion will rule the day. Massive discoveries are underway, discoveries that will radically change our knowledge of the Earth and ancient civilizations and even our own biology and nature.

The "water" that Aquarius brings is living water, and it will be poured out on the Earth to bring forth a new flowering of beneficial knowledge and technology, reformed and brand new cultural institutions, and new forms of government, too. Religion as we have known it, will be transformed; the violence and competitiveness and irrationality at the heart of many belief systems will be brought into harmony with a simple system of practical ethics.

The misuse of justice and legal systems which has become pervasive and damaging throughout the world will disappear; mankind will no longer labor under the groaning yoke of eighty million statutes and "laws". The disgraced attorneys and courts, like the medical doctors and hospitals of the Age of Pisces, will be dismissed as criminals and charlatans, as our critical thinking skills re-emerge from the primordial soup represented by the Age of Pisces.

So now that you know, consciously, where we have been cosmologically for the past few thousand years, and where we are headed for the next 2,000 years, we are prepared to address the problem at hand: sync.

Like that Swiss watch we asked you to imagine, the workings of the Celestial Clock are precise and inexorable: one gear clicks forward, the corresponding gear clicks back, and that's that.

There is no way for mankind -- at least not at this stage of our development -- to reset the Celestial Clock or change the effect of its slow inexorable progress. Our recorded and known experience for the past 6,000 years is the evidence that we are, indeed, subject to the "march of the Ages" and that each Age has its own character and purpose and effect on mankind.

For those of us who are observant, who are thinking, and who consciously know the history, it is apparent that--- like the Swiss watch--- the process and progress of the Celestial Clock is cyclical and unavoidable and at least from the perspective of this solar system, unidirectional in rotation.

We aren't going to magically reverse and find ourselves in the Age of Taurus; it will eventually and naturally return, in about 20,000 years.

This is apparent to the Thinking among us, but it is not apparent to the Zionists, who are trying by dint of their own efforts to "return" to what they perceive as the Golden Age of their religion--- the Age of Taurus, a time of cow worship (Red Heifers and all) and blood sacrifices (poured out on the fields as fertilizer) and warrior Kings, like King David.

They are so determined and so panicky in their effort to re-assert and recreate their "heritage" that they are sacrificing the future they are meant to have. The overall effect is like watching a full grown man, who is insisting on sucking out of a baby bottle and wearing diapers again.

It isn't going to work, and it wouldn't be beneficial to the Zionists or anyone else if it did, but in the meantime, we are all suffering from their pig-headed idea that they can stop the Celestial Clock and reverse it to a time when they ruled the Earth.

The Roman Cult isn't much better.

They want to rebuild the "glories of Rome" and revert to a time when the militaristic and materialistic energies that gave rise to the Roman Empire were at their zenith --- not realizing that that ship sailed at the time of Christ, and won't be back again any time soon, no matter what they do.

What needs to happen and what will happen, either easily and naturally and joyfully --- or under a cloud of nuclear pollution --- is for all of us to shake off the dreams and delusions of former Ages, and embrace the potential of the new Age that has come to us.
