EASY BUILDING PLANS AND TOOL TUTORIALS

For Immediate Release

Launch: Build Basic – An instructional carpentry website

Date: August 14, 2014

We are pleased to announce the launch of BUILD BASIC—An instructional carpentry brand created by former This Old House editor, Jennifer Stimpson. The website, Build-Basic.com, features original, weekly projects designed and created by Stimpson. Each project is accompanied by step-by-step photos, instructions, and diagrams, as well as a shopping, tool, and cut list. When required, board-planning worksheets are also provided. For more information, please visit www.build-basic.com or visit Build Basic on Pinterest, Twitter, Facebook and Instagram using the links below.
