

PRIVACY POLICY

At Pranyas Development Foundation, we prioritize your privacy and the trust you place in us. This Privacy Policy details how we collect, use, and protect your personal information when you interact with our website <https://pranyas.org/> and our services (collectively, “Services”). We are committed to handling your information ethically and transparently.

Information We Collect and Usage

We collect personal information directly from you, from third parties, and automatically through your use of our Site or Services. This information includes, but is not limited to, your name, address, email address, phone number, and payment details. We use this data to:

- Process donations and issue receipts and tax exemption certificates.
- Provide updates on our projects and initiatives.
- Respond to your inquiries and support requests.
- Communicate new opportunities to assist our cause.

You may provide personal information when making a donation, registering for events, pledging support, or applying to work or volunteer with us. This information can be submitted via our website, email, phone, or in person. Some features of our Site and Services may require registration, including providing your name, address, email, and creating a password.

Data Protection and Confidentiality

We are committed to safeguarding your information and do not sell or exchange your personal data with other organizations or commercial entities. We honor your choices regarding communication preferences and ensure that your information remains confidential. If you wish to update your contact details, opt-out of our communications, or have any questions about our privacy practices, please contact us at contact@pranyas.org. We continuously strive to maintain the highest standards of data security and respect for your privacy. Changes to this policy will be posted on our website.
