Dear Friends:

It is my honor to welcome you to the Washington International Horse Show at The Show Place Arena. This special occasion is a celebration of Maryland's rich horse heritage and the significant role it plays in today's equestrian world.

Since 1958, the Washington International Horse Show has become one of the most prestigious equestrian events in North America drawing the finest horses and riders from around the world and throughout the country to compete in jumper, hunter, and equitation classes during a week-long spectacle every October.

The Washington International Horse Show is honored as an official United States Equestrian Federation Heritage Competition and is one of only six International Equestrian Federation World Cup Qualifying competitions in North America at the elite five-star level, and the only indoor qualifier in the United States. This storied historical event has also proven its economic and industry value to Maryland, increasing its impact to $9.1 million in 2024, and attracting competitors and attendees from 12 countries, 35 states, and District of Columbia.

Beyond numbers, the Washington International Horse Show reinforces Maryland's leadership in international equestrian sport, youth development, and community engagement.

To our spectators, supporters, and everyone who plays a part in making this event possible—your enthusiasm and dedication are the backbone of success for this event. Together, let's celebrate a week filled with outstanding sportsmanship, exciting competition, and lasting friendships that all add to the rich legacy of this incredible event.

Sincerely,

from The County Executive

Dear Friends:

On behalf of the residents of Prince George's County, it is my great pleasure to welcome the guests, participants, and sponsors from across the region, nation, and world to the 67th Annual Washington International Horse Show (WIHS), presented by MARS Equestrian. We are honored to host this premier equestrian sporting event, which has a significant cultural and economic impact on our community, drawing visitors, extraordinary horses, skilled riders, and their families from around the world.

The Washington International Horse Show is among North America's most prestigious and competitive equestrian events. This year's show features world-class competition across all levels—international, professional, amateur, junior, and child riders—while also offering thrilling exhibitions, community celebrations, and charitable programs. We are delighted that WIHS has once again chosen Prince George's to serve as the host for this distinguished tradition.

Our county is proud to be known as the Crown Jewel of Maryland, and we invite you to enjoy all that we have to offer. From the Wayne K. WELCOME from The WIHS President

We are delighted to welcome you to the 67th Annual Washington International Horse Show presented by MARS Equestrian™.

WIHS brings tremendous value to the state and local economy while also elevating Prince George's County as a sports tourism destination. In 2024, WIHS delivered a $9.1 million total economic impact to Prince George's County, while celebrating the best in equestrian sport.

This year, our fourth at The Show Place Arena, we are rolling out exciting changes, including new Travelbright, dust-free footing provided by Footing First. MARS Barn Night presented by Walkenbach Equestrian moves to Friday night, and we have increased the prize money for the International Jumper Accumulator Costume Class presented by Turnham Green.

With the $340,000 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Washington CSI5*-W, we are one of the most prestigious World Cup Qualifiers in the FEI North American League with the ultimate prize, the historical President of the United States Perpetual Cup, donated by Jacqueline Kennedy in 1961. We are excited to welcome the Maryland Sports Commission as this year's presenting sponsor of the President's Cup.

We are very pleased to bring back the 'Kind Wins' campaign and stand together against bullying in the equestrian community. Our aim is to foster an environment that not only promotes competition but also supports the well-being of everyone involved, both humans and horses. We are also pleased to introduce the Kind Wins Barn Workshop, where WIHS can bring Kind Wins to your barn!

To our generous and dedicated sponsors, who make it possible to put on this show every year, we extend our sincerest appreciation. Longines, a principal supporter, continues as title sponsor of the Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Washington. MARS Equestrian returns as the presenting sponsor of the entire horse show.

We are pleased to welcome Walkenbach Equestrian as the presenting sponsor of MARS Barn Night. Delta, the WIHS Official Airline, generously sponsors our Winner's Circle in the arena and Kids' Day. Additionally, a huge thank you to the State of Maryland, Experience Prince George's, and The Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission, who have ensured WIHS a wonderful home for more years to come.

As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, charitable organization, WIHS is committed to supporting local and national groups, including our longtime military charity partner, Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS), and the USEF Opportunity Fund. Thank you to all who support these charities alongside our show.

We hope you enjoy the 67th Washington International Horse Show!

FOREWORD

by The FEI President

On behalf of the Fédération Equestre Internationale, welcome to Washington, D.C. for another leg of the highly anticipated Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ North American League 2025/2026 here in. As this new season unfolds, we will see some of the world's best sport horses and athletes showcase their talent as they chase precious FEI World Cup™ points, aiming for the Final taking place from 08-12 April 2026, in Fort Worth TX (USA).

Thirteen leagues, including the North American League, make up the highly successful and global FEI World Cup™ Jumping series which has been in existence since 1978. The format of the FEI World Cup™ series guarantees edge of your seat competitions while displaying the fantastic bond between horses and people; the trust, the communication, the hard work and the patience required. It is this bond which enables impressive feats of athleticism to be achieved and the core around which the whole FEI community revolves.

This year, seven qualifiers will once again take us to different regions of the United States as well as Canada and Mexico, and at each event we will be guaranteed to experience top-level sport as athletes and their horses brave courses of highest standards, set up by some of the best course designers in the world.

This new season will once again be filled with fantastic sporting moments, and I would like to thank Longines most sincerely for their vital contribution, which ensures quality competition and management throughout the series. Together, we are advancing the legacy of this tremendous series whose appeal continues to grow and stretch into new territories attracting many new fans along the way.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank the Organising Committee, the volunteers and partners for their vision and efforts at enabling this event and acting as a motor for international equestrian sport in the region. Your enthusiasm and expertise enable our sport to truly thrive.

LONGINES PRIMALUMA

THE OFFICIAL WATCH OF THE LONGINES FEI JUMPING WORLD CUP™ NORTH AMERICAN LEAGUE IN WASHINGTON

At the 2025 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ North American League in Washington, D.C., the Swiss watch brand Longines is proud to present a model from the redesigned PrimaLuna collection. With its blend of classic Roman numerals, lustrous dials, and meticulously crafted details, this newly reimagined collection speaks to those who understand that true luxury comes from the confidence of impeccable craftsmanship.

For more than a century, Longines has embodied an intuitive expression of feminine elegance, creating timepieces that celebrate the sophistication and flair of women everywhere. From the gem-set creations of the early 1900s to the complications that grace many of the brand's timepieces today, this expertise has established Longines as an authority in feminine watchmaking.

The visual transformation of the PrimaLuna begins with its redefined 34 mm case, where subtle domed surfaces create a beautiful interplay of light and shadow, enhancing the timepiece's graceful silhouette. The crown itself becomes a poetic statement – its bubble-like form evokes the full moon, while delicate engravings of lunar crescents encircle its surface. Available in stainless steel, elegant bi-material combinations, or adorned with diamonds and sapphires, each case configuration preserves the collection's refined proportions while offering a distinct expression of luxury.

For the first time in PrimaLuna history, the automatic moonphase complication is joined by a practical date display, powered by Longines's exclusive L899.5 automatic calibre with silicon balance spring technology. This remarkable movement delivers an impressive 72-hour power reserve, ensuring consistent timekeeping even during extended periods away from the wrist.

The PrimaLuna line reveals its versatility through three stunning dial expressions: a silver sunray-finished dial, a white mother-of-pearl dial, and a celestial blue mother-of-pearl dial. The collection's elegance extends to every wearing option, with each timepiece available on either a stainless-steel bracelet or a premium alligator leather strap. Whether admired for its technical innovation or its aesthetic appeal, every configuration demonstrates how thoughtful design creates perfect harmony between tradition and contemporary sophistication.

BEST TURNED OUT HORSE

PRESENTED BY THE CLOTHES HORSE

DAILY

Sincerely Epic, a nine-year-old Zangersheide mare, ridden by Darya Davoudi, 16, of Houston, TX, was named Best Turned Out Horse on day three of WIHS 2024. She is owned by Epic Sporthorses LLC, and trained by Hanley O'Neal.

"Lulu" and Davoudi were fourth in the $10,000 WIHS Children's Hunter Championship presented by MARS Equestrian, and the shiny bay mare stood out from the crowd. Freddie Rodriguez, who's been grooming horses for four years, said Lulu is his favorite to groom and is delighted when his charges are successful in the show ring.

Davoudi was competing in her first WIHS. "When I first got her she had only been a hunter for a few months, so this is all very brand new to her as well, but she's amazing," said Davoudi. "Every time she goes in the ring, she really gives it her all."

FEI WORLD CUP FINAL TICKET GIVEAWAY

SATURDAY NIGHT

On Saturday night following the presentation for the $340,000 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Washington CSI5*-W presented by Maryland Sports Commission, WIHS will hold a drawing for two tickets to the FEI Jumping World Cup™ Final at Dickies Arena in Fort Worth, Texas, in April 2026. The Final is an annual international competition among the world's best show jumping horses and riders. It was last held in the U.S. in 2023. TO WIN THE TICKETS, YOU MUST BE PRESENT AT THE ARENA FOR THE DRAWING.

HAPPENINGS

EQUIRATINGS

Is it possible to handicap a grand prix jumping competition? The popular WIHS EquiRatings Fan Guide, which debuted last year, will return with its data-driven analysis of the horses and athletes competing in Saturday night's Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Washington. It's available online at wihs.org during show week, and a great resource for fans as they follow the competition.

WIHS OFFICIAL ARTISTS

Since 2015, SHARON LYNN CAMPBELL of Rochelle, Va., has painted a stunning equestrian portrait of the winner of the show's biggest prize, the Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™ Washington for the President's Cup, to be the following year's poster and souvenir program cover. Last year's winner, Rodrigo Pessoa of Brazil and Major Tom, is painted with bright colors against an eye-catching blue backdrop of international flags.

The poster is available at the WIHS Souvenir Shop on the Concourse next to the Kind Wins Pledge Wall. Poster artist Sharon Lynn Campbell will be at the shop to sign posters and programs, and chat about art, on Saturday night.

KELLY WILKINSON COFFIN of Ruckersville, Va., is the artist behind the WIHS Regional Horse Show's prize list cover art since 2020. This year's painting, 'Champion Partners,' is in her trademark style and follows her theme of capturing special moments at a horse show, often between a pony and child. Though a lifelong lover of horses and art, Kelly only began to pursue her interests professionally about 20 years ago following a distinguished career as a Naval Aviator and airline pilot. She is married to Tad Coffin, Olympic eventing gold-medalist and saddlemaker, with whom she shares a passion for riding and a mission to celebrate the relationship between horse and rider.

RACING PRESIDENTS

THURSDAY NIGHT

WIHS is delighted to welcome the Washington National's Racing Presidents, George and Abe, to a challenge race with WIHS's Major and a new friend, Fun, in an unprecedented unpredictable event. The Racing Presidents, Major and Fun will be available for a meet and greet at the show.

PREDICTIONS

GEORGE

George Washington is the quintessential champion. He is, as the saying goes, first in war, first in peace and first to win the Washington Nationals Presidents Race. He is low-key and confident. He races with easy strides and is unconcerned by his opponents.

ABE

Abe Lincoln was reared on hard work and dedicated study and is undaunted by odds. His athleticism comes from years of toil. With long strides, Abe often finds himself crossing the finish line first.

MAJOR

Major, the WIHS mascot, is a dark horse. He's a less experienced racer as he spends most of his time at Barn Night gigs. His very large feet could be a disadvantage, but he's been in training and is shorter and handier than George and Abe (who both measure in at 12' tall).

FUN

Aptly named, FUN is the new mascot of the M-NCPPC, Department of Parks and Recreation, Prince George's County. Fun loves a good time, especially golf. Though unproven on the racetrack, Fun is young, fit and ready for everything fun!

HAPPENINGS

WIHS ANTHEM SINGERS

THURSDAY NIGHT - ALEXANDER STRACHAN

A police officer with the Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Police, Officer Strachan began playing the violin in the Prince George's County public school system at the age of 10. He went on to study music and violin performance at Dickinson College. He seeks to bring music to people in need, in hopes of healing their well-being.

He was featured on the Kelly Clarkson show, CBS national news and has performed the national anthem for the Washington Commanders.

FRIDAY NIGHT - TAYLOR KIPP

Taylor Kipp, 14, from Portsmouth Va., loves to sing and aspires to be a professional singer. From a military family, she started showing horses when she was very young and currently rides at Sandy Point Equestrian and competes in IEA (Interscholastic Equestrian Association), and pony medals.

SATURDAY NIGHT - DC WASHINGTON

DC Washington, short for Dwight Clyde Washington, is known as 'the voice of Washington sports,' as he sings at many of DC's biggest sporting events. He frequently performs the national anthem for the Washington Commanders, the Washington Nationals, D.C. United, and WIHS! The Army veteran also is a member of the nationally known Cathedral Choral Society in Washington.

REX REED AWARD

Rex Reed was 14 when he first volunteered at WIHS, and for more than 30 years, he did everything and anything to help the show run smoothly. He assisted in the trophy pit, helped set up, ran errands, but it was his magical camera skills we remember. Rex's photos captured the joy of the show as experienced by exhibitors, fans, spectators and sponsors. He was easily recognizable in his trademark bow tie. In February of 2019, he was laid to rest. In his honor, the WIHS Board of Directors created the Rex Reed Award, which goes to someone who exhibits the same qualities as Rex-kindness, talent and generosity. The award will be presented on Thursday night.

WELCOME TO THE THE U.S. ARMY CAISSON DETACHMENT

OPENING NIGHT THURSDAY

Color Guard, and Honor & Service Award

KIDS' DAY SATURDAY, 10 A.M. - 2 P.M. PRESENTED BY DELTA

DAILY

Stop by the U.S. Army Caisson
Information Booth on the Concourse

BY ARMY SGT. JUSTIN RACHAL

The U.S. Army Caisson Detachment returns to WIHS this year, bringing with them one of the most moving traditions in military service. The unit is best known for its solemn duty at Arlington National Cemetery, where teams of horses pull the flag-draped casket resting upon the beautifully detailed caisson wagon escorting America's fallen heroes to their final resting place.

For horse people, the connection runs even deeper. Each Caisson horse is selected with extraordinary care. As Sgt. Daimien Copeland explains, "A horse that is well suited for the Caisson will have a good temperament, a strong body, and a sound mind. They must be versatile and able to learn as the tasks they work to accomplish vary." Calmness, strength, and a steady mind are just as important as stature or appearance. Many are Percherons or draft crosses, chosen for their presence and gentle temperament.

Behind the polished appearance in the ring lies a demanding daily routine. The soldiers who serve in the Platoon both ride and care for the horses. "A typical training day for horse and soldier begins with grooming each horse from head to hoof. Once groomed, they will be tacked either to work with the Caisson or to be individually ridden, depending on the training schedule for the day," notes Copeland. Training builds not only skill but trust—essential when performing in front of crowds or honoring a fallen hero.

Visitors to WIHS will have the chance to meet the horses, learn about their preparation, and perhaps even see Sgt. Copeland portraying George Washington in the ring. "The WIHS audience can expect to see professional well-behaved horses that perform their duty to the highest degree as well as being friendly when meeting people," says Copeland.

The Caisson Detachment's mission is steeped in history, precision, and honor. Each horse, soldier, and ceremony embodies the Army's promise to never forget those who have served. As Copeland reflected on President Carter's funeral, "The privilege of being able to be a part of President Carter's funeral as the lead rider with Caisson was an absolute honor that made me feel proud, but also humbled."

At WIHS, they are welcomed not only as soldiers, but as horsemen—and as friends.

LESLIE BURR-HOWARD

2025 WIHS HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

The glitter of the Washington International Horse Show inspired a teenage Leslie Burr when she rode there for the first time in 1974. It was the last year the show was held in its original home, the Washington D.C. National Guard Armory, where the star-studded boxes held diplomats, top government officials, and, more than a decade earlier, made international headlines with the presence of President John F. Kennedy and his wife, Jackie.

The Armory's proximity to the horse country of Virginia and Maryland meant the spectators were always very knowledgeable and understood the fine points of what they were watching, adding to the pressure and prestige for anyone lucky enough to compete there.

Leslie, the 1972 ASPCA Maclay national equitation champion, was up to the challenge when she made her Washington debut memorable by winning the Junior Hunter Grand Championship on Tamsen Cudahy's The Graduate.

As thrilling as that was, it got overshadowed by the many times in future decades when she would shine at the fixture with a legion of hunter and jumper victories. Even so, she never could have dreamed that once her competition days were behind her, she once again would be saluted at Washington with her 2025 induction this year into the show's Hall of Fame.

"It's a great honor," she reflected. "It means that you've contributed a lot, you've had your fair share of success in competition, success as a trainer, success in many different facets of the sport. It's fun to be involved in the horse show's history that way."

During her initial appearance at Washington, she was most impressed while watching the array of top international teams, from the era when Nations Cups were held at the North American fall indoor circuit shows.

Utah and Leslie Howard call it a night after clearing 1.96m (6'5") at WIHS in 2014. Photo by Jump Media

"I remember seeing Frank Chapot and Melanie Smith ride, and I was so enamored by Melanie as one of the first females ever, besides Kathy Kusner, to ride on the team. Billy Steinkraus was there, too," she reminisced.

The experience helped plant the seeds of "wanting to be a U.S. team rider. That was such an honor for me, and I was so in awe of these people," she recalled.

Leslie went on to train with Melanie at Stillmeadow Farm in Connecticut, and the two became teammates on the 1984 U.S. Olympic gold medal squad in Los Angeles.

Before that, however, Leslie made history in the first grand prix she ever won, Washington's iconic President's Cup, in 1979 with the high-flying gray, Chase the Clouds. It happened at Washington's second home, the U.S. Air Arena in Landover, Md., where the show was held from 1975 to 1999. Leslie was 23 years old, and Chase the Clouds was an off-the-track Thoroughbred owned by Edwin C. Andrews.

"I didn't know anything, and I happened to luck into a very wonderful horse. He really put me on the map," Leslie mused about Chase the Clouds — who amazingly won the Puissance the night before the President's Cup by jumping an imposing 7-foot, 4-inch wall.

"In those days, you did all those specialty classes with your top horse. Times have changed, you don't do that anymore," she chuckled.

She often was part of the U.S. squad on the fall circuit, where "winning the team championship was such a big deal." She remembers Bertalan de Nemethy, and then Frank Chapot, when he was Chef d'Equipe, "counting points and counting points" to see where the team stood before the title was awarded.

Leslie Burr Howard won her first grand prix when she was 23 aboard 6-year-old Chase The Clouds at the 1979 Washington International Horse Show.

"If we didn't have enough points, we all had to ride in the Puissance," she recollected.

Leslie, who is married to lawyer and Canadian Pan American Games eventing medalist Peter Howard, has won an incredible roster of important competitions. In addition to taking team gold at the 1984 Olympics, Leslie was part of the silver medal team at the 1996 Atlanta Olympic Games and won the FEI Jumping World Cup Finals title in 1986. Her most notable grand prix victories, in addition to the President's Cup, include the American Invitational in 1984 and the Du Maurier International at Spruce Meadows in 1997. That was the year she also earned the Whitney Stone Cup for her efforts on behalf of the U.S. Equestrian Team.

It's understandable, then, that in addition to being part of Washington's hall, she is in the Pennsylvania National Horse Show, National Show Hunter, and the Show Jumping halls of fame.

Leslie has ridden in most of the venues where the Washington International has been held, going all the way back to the show's Armory days. She was particularly fond of the Capital One Arena in downtown Washington, where the show ran from 2000 to 2019.

"It was like Madison Square Garden," she said, referring to the days when the National Horse Show was staged in New York City. "It was so much fun." She particularly enjoyed Barn Night, when all the kids from Pony Clubs and stables in the Washington region came to cheer for their favorite riders.

She mentioned another distinction while reminiscing about working with four different Chefs d'Equipe, from de Nemethy and Chapot to George Morris and then the current coach, Robert Ridland.

"I don't think anybody else has done that," she said proudly.

Leslie, 69, no longer competes, but she continues to ride every day and remains busy training horses and riders. Her business partner, Jad Dana, has benefitted from her coaching, as have a host of other riders, including current world number one, Kent Farrington.

Asked once how he would describe her, Kent commented, "Leslie is an incredibly hard worker and one of the most positive people I've ever been around."

He wasn't speaking in the past tense. Leslie isn't resting, even though she's no longer in the show ring herself.

"I'm doing the business still as tirelessly, just in a different form," she pointed out. "I just don't put my show clothes on." 🏆

2025 WIHS JUNIOR COMMITTEE

SPONSORED BY SIGNATURE ONE-TO-ONE SCHOOL

WIHS Marketing Manager Quinn Reed oversees the Junior Committee and had this to say about the great year it's been working with the Junior Committee.

I was excited to introduce a new interest-focused structure to the Junior Committee (JC) this year. We organized the JC into three subcommittees: Marketing & Communications, Event Operations & Engagement, and Community Support & Sales, each composed of 11 members. The three Youth Ambassadors had expanded roles leading their respective subcommittees, coordinating meetings, and overseeing the completion of assigned tasks. Each subcommittee was given monthly assignments to help prepare WIHS in various areas.

I'm thrilled with the Junior Committee's consistent effort and dedication to WIHS. Our three Youth Ambassadors, Mia Cook, Mira Cooper, and Juliana Langlois, have been outstanding, diving into their roles and responsibilities as Youth Ambassadors. It has been a great and fun year.

The WIHS Junior Committee & Youth Ambassador Program sponsored by Signature One-to-One School was created in 2009 to offer Washington, DC-area teens interested in horses and event production the opportunity to be a part of the inner workings of the Washington International Horse Show. JC members develop ideas from the youth perspective for the show, learn new skills, and are involved in volunteer activities at therapeutic riding centers such as Promise Landing Farm and Sprout Therapeutic Riding Center.

MIA COOK

YOUTH AMBASSADOR, EVENT OPERATIONS AND ENGAGEMENT

My subcommittee, Event Operations and Engagement, focused on general ideas and details for WIHS show week, and how operations can run smoothly to optimize fan and competitor satisfaction.

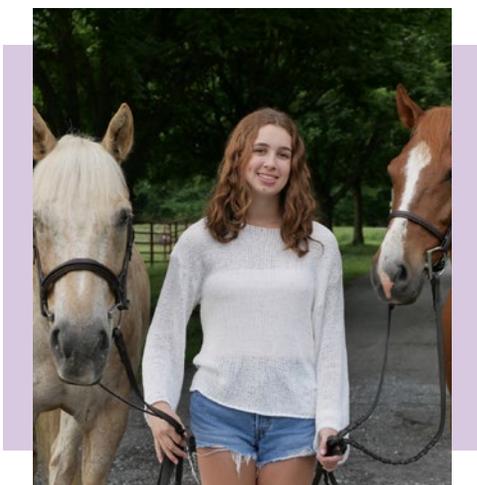

One of our assignments was to develop this year's theme for WIHS Barn Night. Each member was asked to construct a plan for a theme they thought of and then provide details for how the theme could be involved in decoration around the venue, how vendors could incorporate the theme, how fans/barns could be involved, how competitors could be involved, and what prizes barns should be awarded. Each member's plans were presented to the staff where one member's theme, "WIHS Goes Wild," was selected.

Many of the assignments required collaboration between groups. For example, our assignment to plan for Delta's Kids' Day was split between five groups: activities for younger kids, activities for older kids, Kind Wins involvement, signage, and staffing. As a result, each group's assignment relied on another group's ideas to be cohesive (i.e. the signage group needed the ideas from the two activities groups to be accurate).

The change in the junior committee structure was helpful to all those involved. I was able to improve my leadership and communication skills and get experience in my field of interest (equine studies and management). Many members had a sense of accomplishment and took ownership of their work for show week and will get the chance to see their ideas in action. I think the committee this year has been engaging, hands-on, and has been a great way to gain experience.

INFORMATION TO JOIN THE 2026 WIHS JUNIOR COMMITTEE WILL BE POSTED ON WIHS.ORG IN APRIL.
APPLICANTS MUST BE STUDENTS BETWEEN THE AGES OF 14 AND 18 ENROLLED AT LOCAL WASHINGTON, D.C., VIRGINIA OR MARYLAND-AREA SCHOOLS.

MIRA COOPER

YOUTH AMBASSADOR, MARKETING AND COMMUNICATIONS

As the Marketing and Communications Youth Ambassador, I have had a lot of fun working together with my subcommittee members to create meaningful communications for WIHS. My subcommittee has been tasked with fun activities such as designing social media posts, creating graphics, and more! By working on these assignments, we have been able to get to know each other better before show week. Additionally, I have felt much more involved in the lead-up to Washington. Now, I can't wait to see all the work everyone has done come together and make another great year of WIHS for competitors and spectators!

JULIANA LANGLOIS

YOUTH AMBASSADOR, COMMUNITY SUPPORT AND SALES

I have been a member of the WIHS Junior Committee for three years and this has been my favorite year by far. And that is not just because I am a Youth Ambassador, but because I feel like I am a true part of WIHS. As Youth Ambassador I've been given opportunities that I otherwise would have never had. We designed group experiences, created email templates, advertised, and planned playlists. It's more than a fun group get together, but a place where JC members learn new life skills and watch their hard work come to fruition. Our subcommittee specifically helped plan how the WIHS merchandise booth and Kind Wins pledge wall, two centerpieces of WIHS, will be positioned at the show, and we will be able to see our ideas in action.

To be judged on performance and soundness, suitability and manners to count. To be scored under the open numerical judging system. Each competitor will jump one round of approximately ten fences. The 12 horses/ponies with the highest scores from the first round will return to jump a second round. In the event of a tie that affects the selection of the top 12, one judge's score will be designated as the tie breaker. The scores of the 12 horses/ponies in the second round will be added to their first-round scores and placed in order of their total score for the two rounds. Horses/ponies tied for first place only will jump a third round over a shortened course. Ties for all other places will remain tied. Formal attire required.

PRESENTED BY MARS Equestrian™

MONDAY, OCTOBER 20

WIHS EQUITATION FINALS

HUNTER PHASE FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24 • JUMPER PHASE SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25
 EQUITATION FINALS WORK-OFF SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25

FINAL WORK OFF: The average scores from the hunter and jumper phases will be added together to determine the ten riders who will participate in the final work-off. The combined score will determine the order of go, with the highest scoring rider competing last. These ten riders will change horses. The order of change will be drawn by lot and posted before the jumper phase. In determining the ten riders for the final work-off in the event of a tie, the higher score in the jumper phase will determine the order. Riders in the final work-off will negotiate the jumper phase course. There will be neither a starting time nor a time allowed in the final work-off. The average score from the final work-off will be combined with the average scores from the hunter and jumper phases to produce the final result.

Health & Safety Foundation

FROM ONE HORSE TO ANOTHER

WHERE AMERICA'S HORSES GO NEXT
IS UP TO US!

All horses need care givers, but thousands of horses each year become at risk for neglect, abuse, and the slaughter pipeline - simply because they fall through the cracks when transitioning from one owner or one job to another.

EQUUS Foundation Equine Ambassadors are horses whose owners, whether a competing equestrian, a pleasure rider, or someone who loves horses, make a $50 donation in the name of their horse to help ensure that all horses are safe, healthy, and treated with dignity as partners. There's no greater gift you can give than to have your equine partner pay it forward as an Equine Ambassador.

The EQUUS Foundation is the only national animal welfare public charity and accrediting body in the United States with the dual purpose of protecting America's horses from peril and strengthening the horse-human bond. Join us!
