

Certified Open Source Developer for Enterprise Sample Curriculum Path

If you're interested in earning your Certified Open Source Developer for Enterprise (CODE) certification, you may consider following the curriculum path below. Depending on your experience level, these resources and additional research, study, and practice, can help you quickly be ready to earn your certification. Plus you'll earn a badge for every course you complete!

Start by enrolling in these free courses:

FREE
Open Source Licensing Basics for Software Developers (LFC191)

FREE
Introduction to Open Source License Compliance Management (LFC193)

FREE
Implementing Open Source License Compliance Management (LFC194)

FREE
A Beginner's Guide to Open Source Software Development (LFD102)

Then consider intermediate training:

Open Source Development Practices (LFC205)

Open Source Compliance Programs (LFC206)

Collaborating Effectively with Open Source Projects (LFC207)

Increase your chances of becoming certified on the first try by taking:

Open Source Essentials for Developers (LFD221)

Finally, register and sit for your exam:

Certified Open Source Developer for Enterprise (CODE)

Congratulations!

Upon passing the exam, you are now a Certified Open Source Developer for Enterprise (CODE).

Be sure to add your badge to your LinkedIn, LFX and GitHub profiles. This will help you better connect with those in your community and also distinguish yourself as certified for future prospective employers.

NOTE: The courses above are NOT required or prerequisites to take this exam. This is only a suggested path of courses that may help you in preparing for the exam and your next step in your career.