

International Public Notice: Invisible Enemies, Guilting and Fear

By Anna Von Reitz

We have detailed the way the Liars use and abuse words to get their way, using semantic deceits and omissions to prosper their agendas.

We have observed and we provide Notice to the world that everything these people have done has been done via the use of deliberate constructive fraud.

Besides their chronic misuse of names, labels, and words in general, there are other commonalities in their practices, so we move on to observe another means by which they coerce and enslave.

They blame the victims.

They create invisible enemies.

They profit themselves by this.

First, and most famously, there was their interpretation of God --- invisible, all-powerful, and angry with us because of our Sins.

They blamed the sinners.

They defined God as the Invisible Enemy.

They introduced themselves as the mediators.

Having established the pattern, it's easy enough to detect it in current events.

They blamed the Chinese.

They introduced the virus -- the Invisible Enemy.

They profited from the purported cure -- gene editing technology that had nothing to do with any virus.

Or, how about "Climate Change" -- same schtick:

They blamed all of humanity.

They created the Invisible Enemy -- "climate change".

They introduced themselves and their carbon taxes as the answer.

The Liars practice a form of Hegelian Dialectic mixed with superstition. They are constantly found at work following the same pattern: blame the victims, create an Invisible Enemy, and force their salvation/solution.

There are invisible things worth fearing, but not our Creator, not a virus that has never been proven to exist, and not any climate change that people have caused.
