

International Public Notice: Lawful Conversion

By Anna Von Reitz

We spent some time this past week exposing the crime of conversion -- a form of theft, and especially, the more serious crime of Unlawful Conversion.

Following the Maxim of Law -- "As a thing is bound, so it is unbound." -- anything bound by Unlawful Conversion can be unbound by Lawful Conversion.

There are multiple Unlawful Conversions involved in the schemes that brought us to this juncture.

There is the entire "dead baby scam" that defrauded and impersonated babies while they were still in their cradles.

There is the British Land Title system being imposed in America -- as a result of the first scam.

There is the embezzlement against the American Public using the FEDERAL RESERVE NOTE as a means to unjust enrichment.

All of this criminality is enforced by foreign "government services" corporations acting in breach of trust and violation of their service contracts and all under color of law.

Most of the corporations involved have been Unlawfully Converted, too; they started out on the Land Jurisdiction living under the constraints of the Public and International Law, but then, were either "substituted for" or dragged out into the Jurisdiction of the Sea, where they have acted as war-mongering and unaccountable profit-making machines, ruled by nothing more than how much they could plunder.

In case anyone missed the point of our recent Public Notice "Grey Hats and Nails", the military has been in charge of this country since 1863 and has a great deal to answer for-- including but not limited to the Unlawful Conversion of our corporations.

So does the foreign "National Security Council" have a lot to answer for, which as we pointed out many months ago, is composed almost exclusively of foreigners. Not Americans.

Ask yourselves-- how is it that "our" military is paid by a British Crown Corporation, SERCO? And our "National Security Council" is composed of foreigners?

The obvious answer is that the cheap mercenaries are being paid by SERCO because SERCO hired them. And the "National Security Council" was put in place by the United Nations. That's why it's not staffed by Americans.

For those who are in shock or just slow on the uptake, America has been commandeered and occupied by what appears to be its own military for a long, long time.

Our military was unlawfully converted into a Mercenary Service by Abraham Lincoln and then left in charge of our money and the safety of our country.

Britain hired said Mercenary Service and has sat in the cat-bird seat ever since.

The Navies, British and American, are especially culpable, as are the Lords of the Admiralty, as the majority of the crimes committed have occurred in their jurisdiction, on the High Seas or Navigable Inland Waterways.

Knowing that, let's look at the other major player:

The Holy Roman Empire was one of the original Federal Services Subcontractors. It did business under The Constitution of the United States.

When the Holy Roman Empire III closed shop, the service contract was assumed by the Roman Catholic Church itself. And then, circa 1960, things got too hot in the kitchen, and they passed the potato to the City of Rome. Next, the City of Rome passed it on to the United Nations.

All the former contracts of the Holy Roman Empire have been shuffled in this fashion.

And yet, the Holy Roman Empire (HRE) still exists, so why all this administrative changeover?

The short answer is that they have been involved in asset stripping and embezzlement and unlawful conversion and war-for-profit schemes and all sorts of other criminal nastiness for the past 1500 years. That's why the "Holy Roman Empire" has been dissolved so many times in the past.

So they use the Roman Catholic Church as a storefront and they use the City of Rome as a storefront and they use the United Nations as a storefront.... and it's really all the same gig and the same evil and the same players behind all of it.

That's why they have had to keep dancing and shuffling.

Nobody wanted to get caught, but everyone wanted the payola. So they kept passing the Hot Potato.

They finally hit upon the idea -- what if all our incorporated "government" franchises acting as "the United Nations, Incorporated" ---accept responsibility for abusing America?

Then everyone can feel safe from reprisals, if we all stand against the Great Whore....the same Great Whore that they created, hired and misdirected, misinformed and abused.

That's what we've had going on here, behind the scenes, where the public couldn't see it.

The picture is not only grim, it's ludicrous.

The Roman Catholic administrative apparatus cut a deal, and in 1937, these two erstwhile Federal Service Contractors colluded together under The Declaration of Interdependence of the Governments in The United States --- to secretly commandeer our resources and fleece their unfortunate employers blind.

It all started as a British Crown operation in the 1840's. The substitution of Abraham Lincoln to run for election as "a" President instead of The President was not a mistake.

For all the billions and billions and billions of dollars that we have spent on Military Intelligence -- Defense Intelligence Agency, Office of Naval Intelligence, etc., and the Central Intelligence Agency and the Federal Bureau of Investigations and the US Marshals Service and the Department of Homeland Security and Interpol and about a dozen more, not counting all the State-of-State Departments of Public Safety and local Police Departments -- not one of them could figure this out? Not one?

Just like they can't analyze the meaning of what is on Hunter Biden's laptop.

The reek of corruption oozing out of all these corporations masquerading as governments is worse than a rotting salmon carcass, and it's a corruption that impacts the whole world, not just America.

Even if you live in a country that isn't built on this illegal and hidden "corporate model", meaning that your actual government hasn't (yet) been usurped and "privatized" by a foreign British Crown or United Nations "governmental services corporation"---- your lawful government still has to deal with these criminals, thugs, and bullies, all organized as layers of enfranchised interlocking trust directorates---- which are also illegal.

Inevitably, both these criminal corporate infrastructures must come to blows and fight it out for the whole enchilada --- so its a grudge match featuring both sets of corporate criminals, and both are currently claiming victory.

The trigger for the current conflict was the public awakening that is now happening, and the need to blame each other for all the wrong-doing and crime. Otherwise, the UN, INC. and the USA, Inc. would still be cozily in bed together. In many respects, they still are.

We must point out ---none of these "entities" have any natural right to exist. They are all operating in violation of the Public Law, International Law, and Merchant Law.

All of these corporations need to be liquidated in favor of the people-- worldwide-- who have suffered because of them.

Normally, it would be the Pope's job to do this, but now we don't have a Pope. We have a "Patriarch of the West" instead.

It would be very inconvenient for Francis to have to liquidate his own Team and forego this opportunity to literally rule the world, so he and his new partners in the Eastern Orthodox Church are hanging in there, clinging to their stock shares.

Everyone concerned is firmly convinced that their opponents are the personification of evil. Nobody is admitting that they are evil themselves.

Yet, look at their combined "fruits". Begin by counting the number of wars, worldwide, since 1700.

Look at the national identity theft scheme and embezzlement by the incorporated "Federal Reserve" and its non-negotiable "NOTES".

See the self-interested commodity and currency and stock market rigging by the incorporated Central Banks.

Observe the illegal securitization of living flesh created by the impersonation of babies in their cradles and all expedited by the DTTC/DTC, Incorporated, and the SEC -- Securities and Exchange Commission.

Then look at the conditions we are all living under:

The justice system and courts corrupted and used for purposes of unjust enrichment, the medical system perverted to promote disease-for-profit, the honorable national militaries reduced to functioning as cheap mercenaries fighting in endless wars-for-profit, the monetary system reduced to a venal joke.

There can be no doubt that both sets of corporations are evil and that they promote and cause evil consequences for the whole world.

So instead of killing each other, and running the risk of destroying the whole planet, why not kill the corporations instead?

It's much more humane. They won't feel a thing. They are made of paper and don't know if they are on the land or at sea.

If the former Pope can't or won't do his duty, let's do it for him. All the United Nations Corporations and all the British Crown Corporations have to go, because they have been colluding and engaging in crimes under color of law.

They can either be liquidated or be lawfully converted and come back under the limitations of the actual Law.

If they can be unlawfully converted, they can be lawfully converted, too.

This must be done, and this is the choice these corporations and their Principals must be given: liquidation or lawful conversion.

No more "narratives" and shimmy-shuffle dances.

Also, it must be recognized that the unincorporated governments are present and are the actual owners of all the assets and credit that these corporations have been abusing.
