Our Location

World-Class Luxury on the Bukit Peninsula

The Surga villa is a 13-bedroom clifftop villa complex with beach access, the Surga Villa Estate sits on Bali's Bukit Peninsula with multiple dimensions of opulence in two main villas that are connected by a shared courtyard. This is a luxurious beach escape that will satisfy even the most discerning travellers with all the added extras you could imagine like tennis courts, an onsite spa.

Location

The Surga Villas are located inside a private villa estate on a cliff in the south of the island (below the airport) in Bali's Ungasan area. The drive from the airport is around 30-45 minutes depending on traffic.

→ Private Access to Melasti Beach

Neighbourhood

Villa Surga is on the Bukit Peninsula, a coastline with many beaches and surf breaks. There's direct access from the villa to Melasti Beach which is in the Ungasan area. Think white sands, clear blue water and not many tourists. The neighbourhood is friendly and quiet, and there are some excellent beach clubs or bars just a short ride away.

We recommend Karma Kandara and Sundays Beach Club in Ungasan. You can also visit the Alila in Uluwatu for a more formal occasion. Our driver can take you anywhere, or we can organise motorbike rentals if you want to take an exciting tour through the hills to feel the wind in your hair.
