Interested in a position that will make a difference in your life and the lives of others? Community Teamwork is a private non-profit organization with over 500 employees dedicated to reducing barriers and creating opportunities for low-income individuals and families.

As Greater Lowell continues to rebuild and reopen after the pandemic brought much of life to a standstill, CTI is recruiting early education teachers and staff who are looking for a clear path to a fulfilling career. CTI offers a competitive salary and well above average benefits including a generous contribution to employee 401k plans which make Community Teamwork a highly regarded employer.

Along with generous Sign-On bonuses for Teachers and Assistant Teachers, Community Teamwork offers paid training and development including assistance with gaining certification as well as college degrees.

CTI's Head Start Early Learning Program is seeking Teachers and Assistant Teachers for Infant, Toddler and Preschool classrooms. These are full-time, year-round positions perfect for candidates who are eager to work in partnership with parents, staff, and the community to provide quality early childhood educational services and family support.
