

Who am I

Hi, you are on <https://www.dariotordoni.com> my personal website. My name is Dario Tordoni and I am the data controller.

What data do I collect and why

Data collected automatically. IT systems and applications dedicated to the operation of this website detects, during their normal operation, some data (whose transmission is implicit in the use of Internet communication protocols) potentially associated with users identifiable. The collected data includes IP addresses and domain names of computers used by users who connect to the site, the addresses in URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) of the resources requested, the time of the request, the method used in submitting the request to the server, the size of the file obtained in response, the numeric code indicating the status the response given by the server (successful, error, etc.) and other parameters concerning the system operating, the browser and the IT environment used by the user. The provision of such data is mandatory as directly linked to the web browsing experience.

The website collects anonymous visitor information using a self-hosted Umami Analytics, a web analytics service. No personal information is collected or stored.

Cookies. The site does not use cookies.

I use a self-hosted instance of Umami (<https://umami.is/>) to track visit anonymously, just for statistics purpose.

What rights do you have on your data

You always have the right to request the Data Controller to access your data, to correct or delete the themselves, the limitation of the processing or the possibility to oppose the processing, to request the portability of data, to revoke consent to processing by asserting these and other rights provided by the GDPR, anyway I don't collect any personal data at the moment of writing.
